

Decision taken by: Councillor John Collier, Cabinet Member for Property Management and Grounds Maintenance.

Subject: OPENING OF BOUVERIE PLACE TOILETS

Key decision: No

Date decision taken: 8 July 2019

This report sets out Folkestone & Hythe District Council's intention to operate public convenience facilities out of the Bouverie place shopping centre.

DECISION:

- 1) Approve the decision for the Council to take on a lease to operate a public convenience facility at Bouverie Place toilets.
 - 2) Agree the revenue (£12000) and capital (£8000) funding to allow the conveniences to operate in line with other FDC facilities.

Reasons for decision:

Folkestone town centre currently lacks centralised public conveniences. Leasing and operating this facility will provide an important amenity within the central high street area.
